PLAN BIG DAY AT FAIR MONDAY

FIRST ATTRACTIONS TO BE GOOD AS LAST, MANAGER ANNOUNCES.

EXHIBIT TO BE LARGE; RACES TO BE FAST, SAY

Nodaway County Exhibition a Big Drawing Card Next Week—Good Weather is Promised.

All is virtually in readiness for the annual Nodaway county fair, on the East First street grounds, beginning Monday morning and continuing through next week. The exhibits of live stock, grains, vegetables, fruits, poultry and household crafts will not be entirely here before Monday afternoon probably, but the entertainment features are all in readiness—just waiting for the opening of the big gates Monday morning.

That the crowd next week will be much larger even than last year is indicated by the unusually large number of letters and phone calls made to the fair management today and for days past. Every paper in northwest Missouri has been commenting on the attractions, and every farmer for miles around has "laid off" for the fair for weeks gone by.

First Day as Good as Others.

And the government bureau at Washington gives promise that next week will be the best one of the entire month of August.

In so many fairs and exhibitions it has always been the rule that the first day attractions are not up to the mark of the other days, and consequently the crowd waits until the second or succeeding days to attend. But this is not to be the rule next week, according to Jim Andy Ford, manager.

In fact, the attractions for Monday are to be up to the mark set by all others. There will be the same high class attractions, amusements and races Monday as any other day, he states. It is absolutely assured, too, by Manager Ford that each and every attraction will be given on time scheduled.

The program for Monday's fair was announced as follows this morning by Manager Ford:

Monday's Fair Program.

9:00 a. m.—Parade of Fourth Regiment band around square and out East First street to fair grounds.

10:30 a. m.—Aviation by Capt. J. H. Worden.

1:30 p. m.—The four Peerless Potters in trapeze and acrobatic acts.

2 p. m.—Races begin; the 2:40 trot, the half-mile, the five-eighths mile and the three-fourths mile races being held in order.

2:30 p. m.—The four Casters in sensational casting acts.

3:30 p. m.—The one-ring circus by Blake's dogs and ponies.

4:00 p. m.—Aviation acts by Capt. J. H. Worden.

4:30 p. m.—Bull race between the oxen driven by Matthew Baker of Barnard and any horse or mule entered, as arranged by Charles Bellows and A. O. Mason.

5:00 p. m.—Balloon ascension by J. G. Wright.

7:30 p. m.—Parade by band to fair grounds.

8:00 p. m.—Acts by the Peerless Potters.

8:30 p. m.—Casting acts by the four Casters.

9:00 p. m.—Blake's one-ring dog and pony circus.

9:30 p. m.—Spectacular pyrotechnical display by "Fearless" Blondin, in new arrays of fireworks and fireworks features.

WALSH FLAYS COURTS; HIRERS

Industrial Unrest Certain Until Worker is Given His Due, Federal Prober Says.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Chicago, August 28.—Chairman Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the Industrial Relations commission, sent the final report of the commission's findings to Congress today. He appeals to the people to join in an effort to obtain for the workers the whole product of his toil.

Chairman Walsh predicts that there will be an unrest in industry until this is done. It is the most radical document ever filed by a public official. It denounces the practices of the employers and declares evidence has been obtained by the commission to show that courts, legislatures and governors have been rightfully accused of serving employers to defeat justice.

Mr. Harkness leaves Maryville next week to take the pastorate of the Immanuel Presbyterian church of Kansas City. His successor, the Rev. William Moll Case of Caldwell, Idaho, will arrive in Maryville about September 10, to take up his work at the Maryville church.

Men and Women Accompany Children to Wray Farm for Outdoor Frolic —Contest for Prizes.

More than 200 boys and girls of Maryville, who attend the grade schools of the city, are enjoying the Commercial Club's second annual picnic for school "kids" on the Ernest Wray farm today. They will return about 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The youths were hauled to the playgrounds in twenty automobiles, donated for the purpose. The first cars started from the public library, where the youths congregated, about 10:30 o'clock and the last about an hour later. The cars also will be used to convey the children home this afternoon.

Each child was equipped with ample lunch for the picnic "spread" at noon, while the Commercial Club entertainment committee provided plenty of ice cream and lemonade for the refreshment of the kids today.

Frolicked and Played Today.

After dinner they engaged in various games for which a blue ribbon was offered as first prize in each contest.

Swings also were provided and the afternoon is being spent in a general good frolic in the open air and real country. The Rev. R. L. Finch superintended the games and amusements for the boys while a committee of grade school teachers and women of Maryville, chaperoned the girls.

Ed Allen, living north of Conception Junction asks $100 for damage done in April, 1913, by sparks from the Great Western locomotive to timber on his farm, and $150 for the death of a jennet on the Great Western right of way last April, as a result of poor fencing along the railroad property.

G. B. Bonar, Farm Hand, Furnished Liquor to Oscar Ernest—Police Try to Break Practice.

G. B. Bonar, who is employed on the farm of Mitchell Wray, near Maryville, was fined $10 and costs of $6.10 in police court this morning, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of having given liquor to Oscar Ernest of Maryville, who is considered by the police as an habitual drunkard.

Bonar first denied his guilt and elected to stand trial this afternoon, but later he forfeited his $100 bond and confessed to the charge.

Chief of Police E. C. Moberly and Mayor U. S. Wright are making a determined effort to stop the practice of furnishing liquor to habitual drunkards, either by purchasing the liquor for them or giving them the drinks. Several arrests and convictions on this charge have been made recently. A still more determined effort to break up the practice is assured by the city officials.

Teutons "Ease Up" on Under-Sea Warfare to Open Neutral Ports—Needed Resources of U. S.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, August 28.—Germany's concessions regarding the submarine warfare may prove an entering wedge to the end of the war. It is conceded that finances caused Germany to make the change, because if it had broken off relations with the United States the immense financial resources of this country would have been used to help the allies.

Now Germany expects the United States to induce England to call off the blockade against trade with Germany through neutral countries, and also to recall the cotton contraband order recently made by England and France.

GUILFORD POOR FOURTH

Locals Played Rings Around Cellar Nine in Farcical Game Yesterday —Hopkins Took Second.

Base Ball Tourney Winners.

Maryville, first, $125.
Hopkins, second, $100.
Burlington Junction, third, $75.
Guilford, fourth, $50.

The Team Standing.

	Won.	Lost.	Pr.ct.
Maryville	3	0	1.000
Hopkins	2	1	.667
Burlington Junction	1	2	.333
Guilford	0	3	.000

The three days base ball tournament between the Maryville Federals and the teams of Hopkins, Burlington Junction and Guilford, ended yesterday afternoon in a farcical game between the Federals and Guilford, which was called in the fifth inning, with the score 20 to 0 in favor of the Feds. Every ball thrown to the local batters was a strike, and every unusual play resulted in the runner being put out. But even at that the score would go up.

The first game of the afternoon resulted in a victory for the Hopkins team over the Burlington Junction team by the score of 6 to 1, as exclusively mentioned in The Democrat-Forum yesterday.

The Game Proved a Farce.

The Fed batters struck at anything and laughed as the "umps" called every pitched ball a strike, yet they couldn't help but hit the easy tosses.

The Federals will go to Stanberry for a game with the Stanberry Red Sox tomorrow afternoon. It is expected to be a fast one, as the Red Sox have loaded up for the fray, it is reported. Probably two hundred fans will go from here to attend the game.

Willey will pitch for the Federals, while Richardson will catch. Tilson will play the first sack, Scott, third base, Palfreyman, shortstop and Woodard, Morse and Ernst probably in the field.

HELD SMITH FUNERAL TODAY

Body Brought From Kansas City—Services at First Christian Church Conducted by Rev. Chilton.

The funeral services for Mrs. Woodson Smith of Kansas City, who died Thursday afternoon at her home, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the First Christian church. The service was conducted by the Rev. C. M. Chilton, pastor of the First Christian church of St. Joseph, assisted by the Rev. Robert L. Finch of Maryville.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Harry Todd, Mrs. Robert Finch, W. E. Goforth and H. J. Becker gave the musical numbers, which included three favorite hymns of Mrs. Smith, "O, Love That Will Not Let Me Go," "Asleep in Jesus" and "It is Well With My Soul."

The entire chancel of the church was banked with masses of beautiful flowers, which expressed in slight measure the regard of the many friends of Mrs. Smith in this city, in which she grew to womanhood and spent her early married life. She was a woman of lovable character and was admired by a wide circle of acquaintances, both here and in Kansas City.

The body was laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery beside that of her father, A. T. Ellis, and her sister, Mrs. Cora Ellis Hoyt.

Among the relatives and friends from out of town attending were Woodson Smith, Mrs. Amanda Ellis, Leon Smith, Hall Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Irving Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ellis and son, Mrs. John Pew, Paul Ream and Mrs. Wallace of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. George Spurlock and two sons of York, Neb.; Mrs. A. Wehrman and son, Howard, and Mrs. Margaret Wooldridge of St. Joseph.

London, August 28.—The foreign office is watching closely the developments of the German-American situation, in which Germany promises full satisfaction for the sinking of the Arabic. It is causing much interest here.

All believe Germany is making a long deferred bid for the favor of the United States, as the action of the allies in declaring cotton a contraband is believed to have influenced Berlin's action.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, August 28.—The department of commerce has made public a report showing that the steamer Eastland, which turned over and drowned 1,000 in Chicago recently, carried 3,000 persons across Lake Michigan nine years ago.

This is given as the reason the government inspectors raised the carrying capacity of the steamer to 2,500 shortly before the Chicago accident.

RAISE NATURAL GAS PRICE.

Kansas Towns Will Have to Pay 30 Cents for Fuel—Extend Lines.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Kansas City, August 28.—Judge Flannelly of the Kansas district court here today ordered an increase in price of natural gas to thirty cents a thousand feet. The order affects Kansas City, Leavenworth, Topeka and all other towns on the Kansas natural gas lines.

After a three days' hearing Judge Flannelly decided to permit the increase to all companies, and to extend pipe lines to secure an adequate supply of gas for the winter.

COURT SENDS 5 MEN TO PRISONS

THREE SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY 2 YEARS FOR BURGLARY.

2 GO TO REFORMATORY 3 YEARS FOR FORGERY

Max, Roy Woods Uttered "Bad" Checks, Ira Dix, Leslie Maines, Perry Hartness Robbed—All Confess.

Leslie "Heck" Maines, Ira Dix and Perry Hartness, Burlington Junction young men, were each sentenced to serve two years in the state penitentiary when each pleaded guilty to charges of second degree burglary and and Max Woods and Roy Woods, young men, were each sentenced to serve three years in the state reform school when they pleaded guilty to charges of uttering forged checks, before Judge W. C. Ellison, in a special session of circuit court at 9 o'clock this morning. The charges of larceny were dismissed against Woods, Dix and Hartness by Prosecuting Attorney W. G. Sawyers.

Sheriff Edwin Wallace and two deputies will leave this afternoon with the three prisoners for Jefferson City and the two for the reformatory at Boonville.

Bagley to Stand Trial.

Everett Bagley, 19-year-old son of D. D. Bagley, near Skidmore, who is charged with forgery in connection with the two Woods boys, is out on $1,000 bond and therefore will not be tried until the September term, beginning September 27.

The five young men decided to plead guilty to the charges several days ago but no announcement of the special court session was made until today. Each has been held in the county jail here since their arrests.

The law provides that a special court term may be held to try or receive the pleas of any persons confined in the county jail, but not for the purpose of trying or hearing pleas of any out on bond.

With the removal of the five young men today, the county jail will again be empty, as all others arrested on charges by the state are out on bond. They will not be tried until the September court term.

Three Chased to Tarkio.

Maines, Dix and Hartness were arrested at Tarkio July 25, following a chase by Chief E. C. Moberly's bloodhounds from Burlington Junction where they were charged with having entered and robbed the restaurant of Otto P. Roney and the hardware store of J. H. Castle, now owned by Mutti & Brown.

Maines has "done time" in the state reformatory, Dix has been in trouble before, but this is said to have been Hartness' first state offense.

The Woods are brothers and came to Nodaway county about a year ago from Chicago. Since that time and until their arrests they worked at various places in Maryville and on farms nearby. The arrests of the two Woods and of Bagley were made following the passage of eight forged checks among business houses of Maryville last July.

The checks aggregated about $125, and most of them contained the name of D. D. Bagley, father of Everett Bagley, as payee.

In passing sentence on the five young men, Judge Ellison gave each a fine lecture and talk on the uselessness of violations of any laws.

Announcement.

We are authorized to announce Robert I. Young of Buchanan county, as a Democratic candidate for Congress from the Fourth district subject to the primary election to be held August 8, 1916.

Don't you wish you were young enough to go to the kids' picnic?

Guilford furnished the Maryville Feds some very good batting practice Friday, anyway.

Shrapnel is a sort of military hash. It becomes very distasteful after it has been served continuously for awhile.

Kansas is feeling proud now because in twenty counties in that state the poor farms have been abandoned, there being no indigent poor.

Speaking of bargains, the biggest bargain in this section of country is The Daily Democrat-Forum at its present subscription rates.

Success to the children's picnic. There is no more commendable thing than the effort to make the little folks happy under proper conditions. We are children but once in the full sense, and during that period it takes comparatively little to make and keep us happy. The mill never grinds with the water that is past, and the opportunity to give childish joy never returns when we cease to be children. Those who find satisfaction in promoting the happiness of others are doubly paid in the returns from the entertainment of the little folks.

According to reports the kaiser concedes American sea rights and will make reparation for liner attacks resulting in the loss of American lives. It is also said that a change has been ordered in the methods of the submarine warfare, and that notice will hereafter be given before a ship carrying passengers is sunk. This will be good news to all Americans. America wants no trouble with Germany or anyone else, but America does want the innocent bystander protected to the extent of civilized warfare. If the official acts bear out the unofficial reports, President Wilson will have won a splendid peaceful victory for all mankind. He pleads not alone for the United States but for neutrals in all nations.

CZARINA ACTIVE AS RED CROSS NURSE

Two Daughters Also Tireless In Aid of Russian Hospitals.

AUTHOR SEES THEM WORK.

Took Three Months' Course and Is Now Doing Active Service—Two Hundred Soldiers and Thirty Officers Are Being Treated at Base In Which Her Majesty Serves.

Petrograd.—The Russian Red Cross is bearing a tremendous burden. Its self sacrifice, endurance, efficiency and democracy astonish the world. All classes have striven to do "their bit."

About fifteen miles from Petrograd there is a little town, the "Windsor" of the czar of Russia. A year ago court carriages, beautiful ladies, well groomed men thronged the streets of this place. All was sunshine and glitter.

Then the storm came. All Russia rose to fight her enemy. The life of that little village and of the empire changed entirely.

Everybody felt the seriousness of the situation. Russian women came to assist their husbands and brothers, and at their head came the czarina herself.

Her majesty and her two elder daughters, Olga and Tatiana, went to a lady doctor, Princess Gedroyc, and asked to be instructed in the art of nursing the wounded. They entered on a three months' course and passed examinations like any other professional nurses. Every day for three months Princess Gedroyc trained these three imperial sisters of the Red Cross for their examinations.

"I felt exceedingly honored," writes Waclaw Czerniewski, "when her majesty gave me permission to visit on several occasions her hospital and to see her work. Moreover, she gave me personally her portrait. Never before had any journalist been admitted to this hospital. Modesty is characteristic of her majesty. She works quietly and laboriously. The hospital where the czarina and her imperial daughters work every day from 9 a. m. until 2 p. m. accommodates 200 soldiers and thirty officers and has a well arranged operating theater, a commodious surgical dressing ward, well equipped X ray research and laboratory.

"At the head of the staff is Princess Gedroyc, a woman of strong character, who, with the help of two male doctors and several sisters, including the imperial nurses, carries on her arduous task with energy and devotion. The czarina and her daughters obey Princess Gedroyc like the other sisters, and indeed she does not make any difference between them, her sole endeavor being the alleviation of human suffering. During operations Princess Gedroyc gives orders to the czarina, who as her assistant hands her the necessary instruments."

KILLS SNAKE; SAVES GIRL.

Collie Dies From Poison After Making Heroic Fight.

Caldwell, N. J.—Don, a collie dog owned by John Miller of Fairfield avenue, West Caldwell, gave up his life to save the six-year-old daughter of his master from an attack by a copperhead snake. The dog managed to kill the snake, but died two hours later from poison.

Agnes Miller and her older sister, Clara, started out for a romp with Don. They were making for a small clump of woods not far from their home, with the dog close at their heels. The dog suddenly sprang forward, gave a growl and leaped upon a good sized copperhead snake directly in the path of the little girl.

The older girl saw Don tackle the snake, and she seized her little sister and pulled her away from the reptile. Both the girls then ran home as fast as they could and told their father of the adventure. Don got back to the house, but died soon afterward.

Miss Clara Miller said that if the dog had not tackled the snake just at the moment her little sister would have been bitten by the reptile, which was not more than three feet from her at the time.

Barnard Revival Draws Many 'To Fold

E. W. PFAFFENBERGER, JR., Soloist.

HERBERT B. DELAYE, Evangelist.

The union evangelistic campaign at Barnard, under the leadership of Evangelists DeLaye and Pfaffenberger, is getting under way for a great revival campaign. The two Methodist churches and the Christian church united in calling these men to Barnard, and have erected a tent with a seating capacity of about 800, in which the meetings are being held.

The Rev. H. B. DeLaye, the preacher, comes from Tyler, Texas, and Mr. E. W. Pfaffenberger, the singer, from Booneville, Mo. With them are Mr. John DeLaye and Mrs. E. W. Pfaffenberber, personal workers.

While this is only the second meeting that these men have held in Missouri, they come highly recommended. The Rev. Samuel Warner, Ph. D., Kansas City, Mo., says: "Evangelists DeLaye and Pfaffenberger were with the Agnest Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Kansas City, fo rthree weeks, and did a great work. They are clean, cultured, sensible, religious and consecrated men, who will do good wherever they go. Pastors will make no mistake in securing the help of these men."

Evangelist DeLaye is giving a series of heart to heart talks to the church at 10 o'clock each morning and preaching a strong gospel sermon at the evening hour. At 2:30 o'clock each afternoon, cottage prayer meetings are held in different sections of the town. The evening service begins at 7:45 o'clock, when Pfaffenberger leads the large chorus choir in a half hour's singing of gospel songs. The solos rendered by Pfaffenberger also add much to the service.

The morning hour is especially helpful to the Christian workers. The afternoon prayer meetings bring the church men and women together in worship, while a young women's prayer meeting has been organized.

Evangelist DeLaye preached a sermon last night on "Service," after which about one hundred and fifty people came forward and pledged themselves.

VISIT ENSIGN HOLT ON SHIP

Three Maryville Students Spend Day on U. S. Cruiser Milwaukee as Guest of Naval Officer.

The following letter, under the date of August 22, was written to his parents by Ray Cook, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cook of this city, who is at Berkeley, Cal., preparatory to entering the University of California for the winter term.

Young Cook left Maryville about a month ago in company with Virgil Lyle, to make a month's western trip before entering school.

The letter will be of interest to the friends of the boys here, as it relates to a visit with Ensign Waldo Holt, son of Lou R. Holt of North Main street:

I accidentally run onto Ensign Waldo Holt in the fair grounds Friday morning. He was just starting to send me a telegram in answer to the postal I dropped him the day before. He wasn't long in inviting V. S. Lyle, Donald L. Robey and myself out to the curiser Milwaukee the following day (Saturday) for lunch.

We readily accepted. At 11:30 o'clock he met us at the pier in a small steamer and ushered us over. Talk about luncheon, we had a real one. We ate at the officers' table, there being only the paymaster, ship doctor and lieutenant beside Holt aboard.

It wasn't recruited to war strength. There were 250 sailors, but the capacity for war time is over 600.

About the lunch: It was served in four courses, with many helpings, by three colored waiters, who quickly responded to bell. We had sea food, too, about $1.50 meal on shore.

After lunch we loafed around Waldo's private room for a while, then he took us all over the ship and explained everything. A rare treat. It is a large vessel, having four stacks. He took us in certain rooms that an exceptional few visitors ever see, and they must be accompanied by an officer in charge of the boat.

The powder magazines were great. We went clear to the bottom of the ship, over engine rooms, there being sixteen engines or boilers in the vessel. Can make about 22 knots.

Waldo alternates with the lieutenant in having charge of the vessel. They all step around when he says anything. They make their own ice on board and have the latest inventions for washing dishes, mixing bread, etc. I saw more than I can remember to write.

Robey saw all the Fred Robinson family at the fair.

FITTING ALIENS AS USEFUL CITIZENS

Bureau of Naturalization Tries to Solve Problems.

STATISTICS PROVE AMAZING

During the Eight Years of Federal Supervision 2,500,000 Foreigners Have Asked For Citizenship, and Over Half of These Signify Intention of Attempting to Take Out Their Papers.

Washington.—Nearly 2,500,000 foreigners have asked for citizenship during the first eight and three-quarter years of federal supervision of the naturalization law, according to a statement issued by the bureau of naturalization of the department of labor. Nearly 1,750,000 of these have declared their intention or taken out their first papers. Something over 750,000 have asked for final papers, and of these about 650,000 have been admitted to citizenship. During the same period upward of 85,000 foreigners have been refused permission to citizenship, over one-half of these because of mental and moral unfitness.

While the foregoing figures indicate a large number coming forward for citizenship, says the bureau, the number does not appear relatively very large when it is known that in 1910 there were nearly 14,000,000 foreigners in this country, that of this number 9,000,000 were not citizens and that the foreign body has been increased nearly 1,000,000 annually since then. By far the larger portion of the foreign residents have retained their allegiance to the sovereignty of their birth, and, as it appears, many of these are ready to respond to the call of these sovereignties. Many have gone back who had declared their intention.

ANTHONY CAMINETTI, COMMISSIONER OF IMMIGRATION.

Some of them afterward returned and presented themselves for admission. Judges of the naturalization courts have held that such absence from this country in the armies and fighting under their native allegiance broke the continuity of residence for naturalization purposes and denied their applications.

Among the approximately 14,000,000 foreign alien residents, 1,650,361 are classed as illiterate. These are the natural prey of the designing and scheming foreigners and natives as well at every turn. They compel them to pay tribute, both in cash and blood, for every service, both real and imagined, and in the gratification of their desires, however unscrupulous or unnatural. For years this condition has been studied by the bureau of naturalization in its application to the administration of law. It is safe to say that, although 85,000 foreigners have been refused citizenship because of mental and moral unfitness, at least that many have been admitted in spite of these deficiencies during the period of federal supervision. The courts have been reluctant to refuse citizenship to a candidate even though he be ignorant of our institutions or of the privileges conferred upon him. Especially is this so where there are no facilities offered by the cities and towns where the petitioners live for overcoming these defects. In many places the public schools have, under the inspiration of the bureau, opened their doors to the foreigner and taught him the duties of citizenship, and in these places the courts have refused citizenship unless the candidates could come up to the higher standard brought about by federal supervision. These have been tried with success.

During the last year over 335,000 foreigners declared their intention and petitioned for naturalization. This is the high water mark since federal supervision. The federal census shows that the foreign population is many times greater than the number who come forward for citizenship. In many states the proportion of candidates for citizenship is at the lowest ebb. In no state does it exceed 50 per cent, while in some states it is as low as 2 per cent. This is true of the number of foreigners who take out their first papers and those who become citizens

Club Work as "True Religion."

Surely the women's clubs are a valuable auxiliary of the church when it sends women helpers into the homes where sick babies or ailing mothers need intelligent nursing. It served the noblest purpose of Christianity when women to whom every door of life was closed have had their lives made full of hope and courage. There is nothing sanctimonious about the efforts which have succeeded in comforting in spirit to whom the message of cheer and helpfulness has been carried "in the highest missionary spirit."

One very important field of women's club work has been opened in the betterment of rural life. This great sociological design has been making wonderful progress in the past few years. Women's clubs do their share in bringing together people who live in country districts. Thanks to improved roads, the rural telephone, the gradual recognition that the school house can be turned into a neighborhood center, and the rapidity of communication due to the growing use of automobiles by farmers, the country in winter is losing its former loneliness.

A social change that could not have been imagined a quarter of a century ago has transformed the conditions of life in rural districts. It is no wonder, therefore, that the women's clubs away from the cities continue to prosper and multiply. And the best informed observers are of the opinion that the movement which has produced so many federated women's clubs is but in its infancy."—From an address by Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker at the biennial convention of women's clubs.

King Split-Log Drag Invented 19 Years Ago, Known Everywhere Now

The inventor of the "King Road Drag," which is used in every country on which the sun shines, lives not very far from Maryville and in view of southwest Nodaway county. His name is D. Ward King of Maitland, Holt county, Missouri.

In 1896 Mr. King invented his split-log road drag. He had been bothered by muddy country roads. In 1879 King moved to Holt county from Springfield, O., his native town, and bought a farm in the northwestern region of Missouri, twenty miles from the railroad.

When the railroad came up the valley and the farms were fenced the roads began to get bad, and then worse They were a series of hog holes.

The first King road drag was made of an old post and a square wooden pump stack—the kind used in old fashioned chain or piston pumps.

"I had to get a patent on my road drag to scare off a fellow over in Indiana who was going to patent it and make farmers buy it," said Mr. King. "Anybody can make one. I never have made 'em to sell. I furnish the plans for making one to anybody that wants one."

The King road drag is a parallelogram. It is like a capital H with the top and bottom closed, and with the left hand upper corner extended above the line, and the lower right hand corner extended below the line. To the right hand side of the H, at the middle crossing or rung, and also at the lower end of the extended right side of the H, are attached the hitching devices.

The front part of the drag is faced with iron. Standing on this end of the drag a farmer can drive over his road about at the speed he would go with a loaded farm wagon, and a trip up the road on one side and down on the other, after each rain, crowns the road, and puts it in fast shape.

The farmers of northwest Missouri took hold of the drag. The last day of May this year on "Road Drag Day," an annual affair at Maitland, there were 168 road drags in a line, all owned and operated by the Holt county farmers on the roads in and around Maitland.

For twenty years King has dragged a half mile of road from his front gate to his neighbor's front gate, toward town. Gradually, after four or five years, the other farmers along the road came in on the dragging of the road, and now the road is a speedway, in first class condition, all year round except in the dead of winter when the snow banks get high.

In 1901-1902 the State Board of Agriculture retained King to lecture throughout the state on his road drag. Now the calls on King's time have made him stop farming himself, and he operates his farm by "hired hands" exclusively so that he can spend his days traveling about telling about dragging the road.

The King road drag is used in every state in the Union, and in every foreign land.

FREE TEXT BOOKS FOR TWO

Fifht and Sixth Class Pupils to Have Books Supplied Next Term—Now Here.

The A fifth, B fifth, A sixth and the B sixth grade classes of the Central school building here are to be supplied with free text books next term, as well as the grades lower than the fifth. Next year the seventh and eighth grade classes also will be supplied.

The new supply of text books have already been ordered and received here by Superintendent W. M. Westbrook and will be distributed on the opening day of school, September 6. Superintendent Westbrook said he had ordered a full set of text books for 140 pupils, about half being fifth grade pupils and half sixth grade pupils.

No more free texts for the lower grades will be ordered this year, Mr. Westbrook said, unless there are not enough of the last year's supply to go around. He said he expected a slight increase in school attendance this next term, however.

State Buys the Free Texts.

The money to pay for the free text books will be received next January out of the state educational fund. Last year it amounted to $410 for Maryville and will probably be about the same this year.

Most of the texts for the fifth and sixth grades will be different this year than those pupils have been using, Mr. Westbrook said, the change having been ordered last year, but not to take effect until this next term.

The new books are: Riverside readers for the B fifth and B sixth grades and the Elson readers for the A fifth and the A sixth; Webster-Cooley language book; Bailey-Manley Speller; Burell artihmetic; Carr-McMurray geography; Economy writing system, as is to be used throughout the country; the Gulick health series, and the Practical drawing system now in use.

Greek Laborers Observe Holiday Today—Grecian Business Men Work On.

All improvement work on the Wabash here was suspended on account of it being a Greek holiday. Most of the laborers on the construction work are Greeks. The Greeks who are interested in business enterprises in Maryville are making no recognition of the holiday.

In the "old country" it is said to be a rule to kill several sheep on this day and splatter the blood of the animals over the door steps as is mentioned in the Bible.

DOG SAVES THIRTY-EIGHT.

German Captain Spares Boats For Englishman's Bravery.

London.—How the rescue of a dog touched the heart of a German submarine commander has been revealed by the National Canine Defense league. The league has decided to award Captain Robinson a silver medal for brave conduct in saving his wife's dog.

Robinson was in charge of a British vessel, which, ignoring the signal to take to the boats, was shelled and chased by a German submarine. The steering gear was destroyed and the ship compelled to stop. The captain gave Betty, a Pomeranian, to the second officer to put into a boat, but in passing the dog down one of the crew dropped her into the water.

When Robinson entered the boat Betty could be seen swimming toward the submarine. Without hesitation the captain jumped into the water and swam about a quarter mile, caught the dog and put her on his shoulder. As the submarine had drawn up to him, the captain laid hold of her in order to recover his breath. The German commander said, in imperfect English, "I made up my mind to blow up your boats because you did not stop your ship, but will not for your saving the little dog."

Consequently, thirty-eight lives were saved through the rescue of the dog.

TREND OF OCEAN CURRENTS.

Japanese Government Has Thrown 2,000 Bottles Overboard.

Seattle, Wash.—In an effort to determine the flow of currents in the Pacific ocean the Japanese government has thrown 2,000 bottles overboard in a large area south and east of Japan. The first was dropped on May 30 and the last on June 30.

Each bottle contained a request in eleven languages that it be returned to the Imperial Fisheries institute at Tokyo with exact information as to the time and place it is picked up.

According to local mariners, many of these bottles will get into Puget sound and some into the gulf of Lower California. In recent years large quantities of wood, both trees and lumber, from Japan, Siberia and the Philippines have been picked up on Puget sound shores. It is believed by many seafaring men that the current from off the Japan and China coast returns to the orient after a great circuit through the Pacific as far south as the Hawaiian group.

A substantial reward is offered to the finder of each bottle.

Asbestos has been spun into thread so fine that it requires 32,000 feet to weigh a pound.

COLVES DISEASE MYSTERY.

British Officer Finds Cause of 4,000 Year Scourge.

London.—Lieutenant Colonel Leiper of the London School of Tropical Medicine has just returned from Egypt, where he had been investigating bilharziosis, and has communicated an important discovery respecting this disease to the Royal Society of Medicine.

The disease, which has been a scourge to the Nile delta for thousands of years, has been discovered to have been the cause of death in mummies dating back to 2000 B. C.

In his report Colonel Leiper cited a village where 90 per cent of the children are infected. It has long been known that the disease was transmitted by water, but the life and history of the parasite have remained unestablished.

It has been discovered that the disease is started in a worm which lives in the human body. The eggs of this worm pass from the body into canals and pools, where they enter molluss and there undergo certain evolutions. They emerge from the molluss in a form enabling them to enter the human body through the skin. In this way the disease is commonly contracted while bathing and washing.

Colonel Leiper contends that the disease can be exterminated by filling the pools during the dry season.

Two-year-old Boy Got Bethlehem Shares Raffled by Orphan Asylum.

Ambridge, Pa.—During the orphans' picnic of Allegheny county, held at Kennywood, a ticket costing 10 cents and calling for a chance on ten shares of Bethlehem Steel company stock was bought in the name of Thomas McCroy, two years old, by his father, James McCroy, proprietor of the Hotel Grant here. The officials of the picnic received the stock from James Mulvihill, the Pittsburgh brewer.

A few days ago the stock certificate was sold in this city to a banker for $3,100 at the rate of $310 a share, the top notch price reached by the Bethlehem shares in their recent rapid rise. The money was placed on interest in the boy's name.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN NOW A REFORMER

Ex-Champion Pugilist Exhorts Crowd to Quit Drink.

Asbury Park, N. J.—John L. Sullivan made his bow as a public lecturer on temperance the other day. With an old reputation as a great consumer of liquor, the stalwart ex-pugilist attracted a large audience, among whom were many gayly attired women.

With few gestures, but with a good deal of force, Sullivan said:

"Ladies and gentlemen and my friends, now you know I could never be but one person, and that is John L. Sullivan as he is at all times.

"I want to speak particularly to the young man. He will say: 'I know men that drink every day. They are wonderfully prosperous and healthy.' I say to the young man if you want to be prosperous and healthy do not drink at all. Take the young ball players. They are a stamp of men who do not drink any liquor. I was a money making machine, and my success depended upon my spirit and ability to hang fast.

"In all my career in the prize ring I never was knocked down. It was said Charley Mitchell knocked me down. That is not true. I slipped and was up and at it again in a second. I had managers and trainers because of my superior skill. Naturally it was for their benefit to keep me in the best physical shape so that I could fulfill my best effort, because if John L. played out their meal ticket was gone. But they were generally unsuccessful when they tried to stop me. They were afraid of me.

"But booze wasn't afraid of John L. Sullivan. It was a long time before I began to realize there could be but one finish. So I took a tumble to myself.

"Now, I want to tell you something from the book of experience of John L. Sullivan. The booze has more ways of hitting you than you have of dodging, no matter how successful an individual you may be."

PLAN BIG DAY AT FAIR MONDAY

Nodaway County Exhibition a Big Drawing Card Next Week—Good Weather is Promised.

All is virtually in readiness for the annual Nodaway county fair, on the East First street grounds, beginning Monday morning and continuing through next week. The exhibits of live stock, grains, vegetables, fruits, poultry and household crafts will not be entirely here before Monday afternoon probably, but the entertainment features are all in readiness—just waiting for the opening of the big gates Monday morning.

That the crowd next week will be much larger even than last year is indicated by the unusually large number of letters and phone calls made to the fair management today and for days past. Every paper in northwest Missouri has been commenting on the attractions, and every farmer for miles around has "laid off" for the fair for weeks gone by.

First Day as Good as Others.

And the government bureau at Washington gives promise that next week will be the best one of the entire month of August.

In so many fairs and exhibitions it has always been the rule that the first day attractions are not up to the mark of the other days, and consequently the crowd waits until the second or succeeding days to attend. But this is not to be the rule next week, according to Jim Andy Ford, manager.

In fact, the attractions for Monday are to be up to the mark set by all others. There will be the same high class attractions, amusements and races Monday as any other day, he states. It is absolutely assured, too, by Manager Ford that each and every attraction will be given on time scheduled.

The program for Monday's fair was announced as follows this morning by Manager Ford:

Monday's Fair Program.

9:00 a. m.—Parade of Fourth Regiment band around square and out East First street to fair grounds.

10:30 a. m.—Aviation by Capt. J. H. Worden.

1:30 p. m.—The four Peerless Potters in trapeze and acrobatic acts.

2 p. m.—Races begin; the 2:40 trot, the half-mile, the five-eighths mile and the three-fourths mile races being held in order.

2:30 p. m.—The four Casters in sensational casting acts.

3:30 p. m.—The one-ring circus by Blake's dogs and ponies.

4:00 p. m.—Aviation acts by Capt. J. H. Worden.

4:30 p. m.—Bull race between the oxen driven by Matthew Baker of Barnard and any horse or mule entered, as arranged by Charles Bellows and A. O. Mason.

5:00 p. m.—Balloon ascension by J. G. Wright.

7:30 p. m.—Parade by band to fair grounds.

8:00 p. m.—Acts by the Peerless Potters.

8:30 p. m.—Casting acts by the four Casters.

9:00 p. m.—Blake's one-ring dog and pony circus.

9:30 p. m.—Spectacular pyrotechnical display by "Fearless" Blondin, in new arrays of fireworks and fireworks features.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Chicago, August 28.—Chairman Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the Industrial Relations commission, sent the final report of the commission's findings to Congress today. He appeals to the people to join in an effort to obtain for the workers the whole product of his toil.

Chairman Walsh predicts that there will be an unrest in industry until this is done. It is the most radical document ever filed by a public official. It denounces the practices of the employers and declares eviednce has been obtained by the commission to show that courts, legislatures and governors have been rightfully accused of serving employers to defeat justice.

More than 200 boys and girls of Maryville, who attend the grade schools of the city, are enjoying the Commercial Club's second annual picnic for school "kids" on the Ernest Wray farm today. They will return about 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The youths were hauled to the playgrounds in twenty automobiles, donated for the purpose. The first cars started from the public library, where the youths congregated, about 10:30 o'clock and the last about an hour later. The cars also will be used to convey the children home this afternoon.

Each child was equipped with ample lunch for the picnic "spread" at noon, while the Commercial Club entertainment committee provided plenty of ice cream and lemonade for the refreshment of the kids today.

Frolicked and Played Today.

After dinner they engaged in various games for which a blue ribbon was offered as first prize in each contest.

Swings also were provided and the afternoon is being spent in a general good frolic in the open air and real country. The Rev. R. L. Finch superintended the games and amusements for the boys while a committee of grade school teachers and women of Maryville, chaperoned the girls.

Two more damage suits were filed against the Chicago Great Western railroad in circuit court today or trial in the September term. Howard J. G. B. Bonar, Farm Hand, Furnished Liquor to Oscar Ernest—Police Try to Break Practice.

G. B. Bonar, who is employed on the farm of Mitchell Wray, near Maryville, was fined $10 and costs of $6.10 in police court this morning, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of having given liquor to Oscar Ernest of Maryville, who is considered by the police as an habitual drunkard.

Bonar first denied his guilt and elected to stand trial this afternoon, but later he forfeited his $100 bond and confessed to the charge.

Chief of Police E. C. Moberly and Mayor U. S. Wright are making a determined effort to stop the practice of furnishing liquor to habitual drunkards, either by purchasing the liquor for them or giving them the drinks. Several arrests and convictions on this charge have been made recently. A still more determined effort to break up the practice is assured by the city officials.

Teutons "Ease Up" on Under-Sea Warfare to Open Neutral Ports—Needed Resources of U. S.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, August 28.—Germany's concessions regarding the submarine warfare may prove an entering wedge to the end of the war. It is conceded that finances caused Germany to make the change, because if it had broken off relations with the United States the immense financial resources of this country would have been used to help the allies.

Now Germany expects the United States to induce England to call off the blockade against trade with Germany through neutral countries, and also to recall the cotton contraband order recently made by England and France.

Maryville	3	0	1.000
Hopkins	2	1	.667
Burlington Junction	1	2	.333
Guilford	0	3	.000

The three days base ball tournament between the Maryville Federals and the teams of Hopkins, Burlington Junction and Guilford, ended yesterday afternoon in a farcical game between the Federals and Guilford, which was called in the fifth inning, with the score 20 to 0 in favor of the Feds. Every ball thrown to the local batters was a strike, and every unusual play resulted in the runner being put out. But even at that the score would go up.

The first game of the afternoon resulted in a victory for the Hopkins team over the Burlington Junction team by the score of 6 to 1, as exclusively mentioned in The Democrat-Forum yesterday.

The Game Proved a Farce.

The Fed batters struck at anything and laughed as the "umps" called every pitched ball a strike, yet they couldn't help but hit the easy tosses.

The Federals will go to Stanberry for a game with the Stanberry Red Sox tomorrow afternoon. It is expected to be a fast one, as the Red Sox have loaded up for the fray, it is reported. Probably two hundred fans will go from here to attend the game.

Willey will pitch for the Federals, while Richardson will catch. Tilson will play the first sack, Scott, third base, Palfreyman, shortstop and Woodard, Morse and Ernst probably in the field.

HELD SMITH FUNERAL TODAY

Body Brought From Kansas City—Services at First Christian Church Conducted by Rev. Chilton.

The funeral services for Mrs. Woodson Smith of Kansas City, who died Thursday afternoon at her home, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the First Christian church. The service was conducted by the Rev. C. M. Chilton, pastor of the First Christian church of St. Joseph, assisted by the Rev. Robert L. Finch of Maryville.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Harry Todd, Mrs. Robert Finch, W. E. Goforth and H. J. Becker gave the musical numbers, which included three favorite hymns of Mrs. Smith, "O, Love That Will Not Let Me Go," "Asleep in Jesus" and "It is Well With My Soul."

The entire chancel of the church was banked with masses of beautiful flowers, which expressed in slight measure the regard of the many friends of Mrs. Smith in this city, in which she grew to womanhood and spent her early married life. She was a woman of lovable character and was admired by a wide circle of acquaintances, both here and in Kansas City.

The body was laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery beside that of her father, A. T. Ellis, and her sister, Mrs. Cora Ellis Hoyt.

Among the relatives and friends from out of town attending were Woodson Smith, Mrs. Amanda Ellis, Leon Smith, Hall Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Irving Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ellis and son, Mrs. John Pew, Paul Ream and Mrs. Wallace of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. George Spurlock and two sons of York, Neb.; Mrs. A. Wehrman and son, Howard, and Mrs. Margaret Wooldridge of St. Joseph.

Germans Did No Damage, But Two Are Killed When French Bring Down Aeroplane

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Paris, August 28.—For the first time in several weeks, German aviators attacked Paris. The attack was a complete failure. Four German aeroplanes were greeted by a heavy fire from the French forts surrounding the city, and forced them to flee.

One aeroplane was brought down and both aviators aboard it, were killed. The fleeing German aviators dropped bombs at Montmorary without damage.

Allies' Decision That Cotton is Contraband Has Caused New Promises by Kaiser, British Say.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, August 28.—The foreign office is watching closely the developments of the German-American situation, in which Germany promises full satisfaction for the sinking of the Arabic. It is causing much interest here.

All believe Germany is making a long deferred bid for the favor of the United States, as the action of the allies in declaring cotton a contraband is believed to have influenced Berlin's action.

SAY EASTLAND HAULED 3,000

Government Gives That as Reason Carrying Capacity Was Raised Before Chicago Accident.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, August 28.—The department of commerce has made public a report showing that the steamer Eastland, which turned over and drowned 1,000 in Chicago recently, carried 3,000 persons across Lake Michigan nine years ago.

This is given as the reason the government inspectors raised the carrying capacity of the steamer to 2,500 shortly before the Chicago accident.

RAISE NATURAL GAS PRICE.

Kansas Towns Will Have to Pay 30 Cents for Fuel—Extend Lines.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Kansas City, August 28.—Judge Flannelly of the Kansas district court here today ordered an increase in price of natural gas to thirty cents a thousand feet. The order affects Kansas City, Leavenworth, Topeka and all other towns on the Kansas natural gas lines.

After a three days' hearing Judge Flannelly decided to permit the increase to all companies, and to extend pipe lines to secure an adequate supply of gas for the winter.

THREE SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY 2 YEARS FOR BURGLARY.

2 GO TO REFORMATORY 3 YEARS FOR FORGERY

Max, Roy Woods Uttered "Bad" Checks, Ira Dix, Leslie Maines, Perry Hartness Robbed—All Confess.

Leslie "Heck" Maines, Ira Dix and Perry Hartness, Burlington Junction young men, were each sentenced to serve two years in the state penitentiary when each pleaded guilty to charges of second degree burglary and and Max Woods and Roy Woods, young men, were each sentenced to serve three years in the state reform school when they pleaded guilty to charges of uttering forged checks, before Judge W. C. Ellison, in a special session of circuit court at 9 o'clock this morning. The charges of larceny were dismissed against Woods, Dix and Hartness by Prosecuting Attorney W. G. Sawyers.

Sheriff Edwin Wallace and two deputies will leave this afternoon with the three prisoners for Jefferson City and the two for the reformatory at Boonville.

Bagley to Stand Trial.

Everett Bagley, 19-year-old son of D. D. Bagley, near Skidmore, who is charged with forgery in connection with the two Woods boys, is out on $1,000 bond and therefore will not be tried until the September term, beginning September 27.

The five young men decided to plead guilty to the charges several days ago but no announcement of the special court session was made until today. Each has been held in the county jail here since their arrests.

The law provides that a special court term may be held to try or receive the pleas of any persons confined in the county jail, but not for the purpose of trying or hearing pleas of any out on bond.

With the removal of the five young men today, the county jail will again be empty, as all others arrested on charges by the state are out on bond. They will not be tried until the September court term.

Three Chased to Tarkio.

Maines, Dix and Hartness were arrested at Tarkio July 25, following a chase by Chief E. C. Moberly's bloodhounds from Burlington Junction where they were charged with having entered and robbed the restaurant of Otto P. Roney and the hardware store of J. H. Castle, now owned by Mottl & Brown.

Maines has "done time" in the state reformatory, Dix has been in trouble before, but this is said to have been Hartness' first state offense.

The Woods are brothers and came to Nodaway county about a year ago from Chicago. Since that time and until their arrests they worked at various places in Maryville and on farms nearby. The arrests of the two Woods and of Bagley were made following the passage of eight forged checks among business houses of Maryville last July.

The checks aggregated about $125, and most of them contained the name of D. D. Bagley, father of Everett Bagley, as payee.

In passing sentence on the five young men, Judge Ellison gave each a fine lecture and talk on the uselessness of violations of any laws.

Announcement.

We are authorized to announce Robert I. Young of Buchanan county, as a Democratic candidate for Congress from the Fourth district subject to the primary election to be held August 8, 1916.

Don't you wish you were young enough to go to the kids' picnic?

Guilford furnished the Maryville Feds some very good batting practice Friday, anyway.

Shrapnel is a sort of military hash. It becomes very distasteful after it has been served continuously for awhile.

Kansas is feeling proud now because in twenty counties in that state the poor farms have been abandoned, there being no indigent poor.

Speaking of bargains, the biggest bargain in this section of country is The Daily Democrat-Forum at its present subscription rates.

Success to the children's picnic. There is no more commendable thing than the effort to make the little folks happy under proper conditions. We are children but once in the full sense, and during that period it takes comparatively little to make and keep us happy. The mill never grinds with the water that is past, and the opportunity to give childish joy never returns when we cease to be children. Those who find satisfaction in promoting the happiness of others are doubly paid in the returns from the entertainment of the little folks.

According to reports the kaiser concedes American sea rights and will make reparation for liner attacks resulting in the loss of American lives. It is also said that a change has been ordered in the methods of the submarine warfare, and that notice will hereafter be given before a ship carrying passengers is sunk. This will be good news to all Americans. America wants no trouble with Germany or anyone else, but America does want the innocent bystander protected to the extent of civilized warfare. If the official acts bear out the unofficial reports, President Wilson will have won a splendid peaceful victory for all mankind. He pleads not alone for the United States but for neutrals in all nations.

CZARINA ACTIVE AS RED CROSS NURSE

Two Daughters Also Tireless In Aid of Russian Hospitals.

AUTHOR SEES THEM WORK.

Took Three Months' Course and Is Now Doing Active Service—Two Hundred Soldiers and Thirty Officers Are Being Treated at Base In Which Her Majesty Serves.

Petrograd.—The Russian Red Cross is bearing a tremendous burden. Its self sacrifice, endurance, efficiency and democracy astonish the world. All classes have striven to do "their bit."

About fifteen miles from Petrograd there is a little town, the "Windsor" of the czar of Russia. A year ago court carriages, beautiful ladies, well groomed men thronged the streets of this place. All was sunshine and glitter.

Then the storm came. All Russia rose to fight her enemy. The life of that little village and of the empire changed entirely.

to assist their husbands and brothers, and at their head came the czarina herself.

Her majesty and her two elder daughters, Olga and Tatiana, went to a lady doctor, Princess Gedroyc, and asked to be instructed in the art of nursing the wounded. They entered on a three months' course and passed examinations like any other professional nurses. Every day for three months Princess Gedroyc trained these three imperial sisters of the Red Cross for their examinations.

"I felt exceedingly honored," writes Waclaw Czerniewski, "when her majesty gave me permission to visit on several occasions her hospital and to see her work. Moreover, she gave me personally her portrait. Never before had any journalist been admitted to this hospital. Modesty is characteristic of her majesty. She works quietly and laboriously. The hospital where the czarina and her imperial daughters work every day from 9 a. m. until 2 p. m. accommodates 200 soldiers and thirty officers and has a well arranged operating theater, a commodious surgical dressing ward, well equipped X ray research and laboratory.

"At the head of the staff is Princess Gedroyc, a woman of strong character, who, with the help of two male doctors and several sisters, including the imperial nurses, carries on her arduous task with energy and devotion. The czarina and her daughters obey Princess Gedroyc like the other sisters, and indeed she does not make any difference between them, her sole endeavor being the alleviation of human suffering. During operations Princess Gedroyc gives orders to the czarina, who as her assistant hands her the necessary instruments."

KILLS SNAKE; SAVES GIRL.

Collie Dies From Poison After Making Heroic Fight.

Caldwell, N. J.—Don, a collie dog owned by John Miller of Fairfield avenue, West Caldwell, gave up his life to save the six-year-old daughter of his master from an attack by a copperhead snake. The dog managed to kill the snake, but died two hours later from poison.

Agnes Miller and her older sister, Clara, started out for a romp with Don. They were making for a small clump of woods not far from their home, with the dog close at their heels. The dog suddenly sprang forward, gave a growl and leaped upon a good sized copperhead snake directly in the path of the little girl.

The older girl saw Don tackle the snake, and she seized her little sister and pulled her away from the reptile. Both the girls then ran home as fast as they could and told their father of the adventure. Don got back to the house, but died soon afterward.

Miss Clara Miller said that if the dog had not tackled the snake just at the moment her little sister would have been bitten by the reptile, which was not more than three feet from her at the time.

Barnard Revival Draws Many To Fold

E. W. PFAFFENBERGER, JR., Soloist.

HERBERT B. DELAYE, Evangelist.

The union evangelistic campaign at Barnard, under the leadership of Evangelists DeLaye and Pfaffenberger, is getting under way for a great revival campaign. The two Methodist churches and the Christian church united in calling these men to Barnard, and have erected a tent with a seating capacity of about 800, in which the meetings are being held.

The Rev. H. B. DeLaye, the preacher, comes from Tyler, Texas, and Mr. E. W. Pfaffenberger, the singer, from Booneville, Mo. With them are Mr. John DeLaye and Mrs. E. W. Pfaffenberber, personal workers.

While this is only the second meeting that these men have held in Missouri, they come highly recommended. The Rev. Samuel Warner, Ph. D., Kansas City, Mo., says: "Evangelists DeLaye and Pfaffenberger were with the Agnest Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Kansas City, fo rthree weeks, and did a great work. They are clean, cultured, sensible, religious and consecrated men, who will do good wherever they go. Pastors will make no mistake in securing the help of these men."

Evangelist DeLaye is giving a series of heart to heart talks to the church at 10 o'clock each morning and preaching a strong gospel sermon at the evening hour. At 2:30 o'clock each afternoon, cottage prayer meetings are held in different sections of the town. The evening service begins at 7:45 o'clock, when Pfaffenberger leads the large chorus choir in a half hour's singing of gospel songs. The solos rendered by Pfaffenberger also add much to the service.

The morning hour is especially helpful to the Christian workers. The afternoon prayer meetings bring the church men and women together in worship, while a young women's prayer meeting has been organized.

Evangelist DeLaye preached a sermon last night on "Service," after which about one hundred and fifty people came forward and pledged themselves.

VISIT ENSIGN HOLT ON SHIP

Three Maryville Students Spend Day on U. S. Cruiser Milwaukee as Guest of Naval Officer.

The following letter, under the date of August 22, was written to his parents by Ray Cook, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cook of this city, who is at Berkeley, Cal., preparatory to entering the University of California for the winter term.

Young Cook left Maryville about a month ago in company with Virgil Lyle, to make a month's western trip before entering school.

The letter will be of interest to the friends of the boys here, as it relates to a visit with Ensign Waldo Holt, son of Lou R. Holt of North Main street:

I accidentally run onto Ensign Waldo Holt in the fair grounds Friday morning. He was just starting to send me a telegram in answer to the postal I dropped him the day before. He wasn't long in inviting V. S. Lyle, Donald L. Robey and myself out to the curiser Milwaukee the following day (Saturday) for lunch.

We readily accepted. At 11:30 o'clock he met us at the pier in a small steamer and ushered us over. Talk about luncheon, we had a real one. We ate at the officers' table, there being only the paymaster, ship doctor and lieutenant beside Holt aboard.

It wasn't recruited to war strength. There were 250 sailors, but the capacity for war time is over 600.

About the lunch: It was served in four courses, with many helpings, by three colored waiters, who quickly responded to bell. We had sea food, too, about $1.50 meal on shore.

After lunch we loafed around Waldo's private room for a while, then he took us all over the ship and explained everything. A rare treat. It is a large vessel, having four stacks. He took us in certain rooms that an exceptional few visitors ever see, and they must be accompanied by an officer in charge of the boat.

The powder magazines were great. We went clear to the bottom of the ship, over engine rooms, there being sixteen engines or boilers in the vessel. Can make about 22 knots.

Waldo alternates with the lieutenant in having charge of the vessel. They all step around when he says anything. They make their own ice on board and have the latest inventions for washing dishes, mixing bread, etc. I saw more than I can remember to write.

Robey saw all the Fred Robinson family at the fair.

I met B. A. Stagner, my senior year principal at high school, Saturday at the mission building. He teaches now at the Fresno high school and will be in Berkeley several days.

Virgil Lyle and I went to Frisco at noon to see the hospital with Hamlin, but missed out and went to the Cliff house for a while. * * * Lyle and I then went to Oakland to visit C. A. Parrish, the son of that Mr. Parrish on South Buchanan street at home. He is day clerk in the Key Route Inn. He draws $175 per month, counting board and room. He has been out since 1906, and says it would break his heart if he had to live east of Colorado.

Lyle expects to start back tomorrow evening.

Bureau of Naturalization Tries to Solve Problems.

STATISTICS PROVE AMAZING

During the Eight Years of Federal Supervision 2,500,000 Foreigners Have Asked For Citizenship, and Over Half of These Signify Intention of Attempting to Take Out Their Papers.

Washington.—Nearly 2,500,000 foreigners have asked for citizenship during the first eight and three-quarter years of federal supervision of the naturalization law, according to a statement issued by the bureau of naturalization of the department of labor. Nearly 1,750,000 of these have declared their intention or taken out their first papers. Something over 750,000 have asked for final papers, and of these about 650,000 have been admitted to citizenship. During the same period upward of 85,000 foreigners have been refused permission to citizenship, over one-half of these because of mental and moral unfitness.

While the foregoing figures indicate a large number coming forward for citizenship, says the bureau, the number does not appear relatively very large when it is known that in 1910 there were nearly 14,000,000 foreigners in this country, that of this number 9,000,000 were not citizens and that the foreign body has been increased nearly 1,000,000 annually since then. By far the larger portion of the foreign residents have retained their allegiance to the sovereignty of their birth, and, as it appears, many of these are ready to respond to the call of these sovereignties. Many have gone back who had declared their intention.

ANTHONY CAMINETTI, COMMISSIONER OF IMMIGRATION.

Some of them afterward returned and presented themselves for admission. Judges of the naturalization courts have held that such absence from this country in the armies and fighting under their native allegiance broke the continuity of residence for naturalization purposes and denied their applications.

Among the approximately 14,000,000 foreign alien residents, 1,650,361 are classed as illiterate. These are the natural prey of the designing and scheming foreigners and natives as well at every turn. They compel them to pay tribute, both in cash and blood, for every service, both real and imagined, and in the gratification of their desires, however unscrupulous or unnatural. For years this condition has been studied by the bureau of naturalization in its application to the administration of law. It is safe to say that, although 85,000 foreigners have been refused citizenship because of mental and moral unfitness, at least that many have been admitted in spite of these deficiencies during the period of federal supervision. The courts have been reluctant to refuse citizenship to a candidate even though he be ignorant of our institutions or of the privileges conferred upon him. Especially is this so where there are no facilities offered by the cities and towns where the petitioners live for overcoming these defects. In many places the public schools have, under the inspiration of the bureau, opened their doors to the foreigner and taught him the duties of citizenship, and in these places the courts have refused citizenship unless the candidates could come up to the higher standard brought about by federal supervision. These have been tried with success.

During the last year over 335,000 foreigners declared their intention and petitioned for naturalization. This is the high water mark since federal supervision. The federal census shows that the foreign population is many times greater than the number who come forward for citizenship. In many states the proportion of candidates for citizenship is at the lowest ebb. In no state does it exceed 50 per cent, while in some states it is as low as 2 per cent. This is true of the number of foreigners who take out their first papers and those who become citizens.

Prof. Vandervilt, contortionists, and other athletic events have been pleasing the crowd, and the music by the Ravenwood orchestra has added to the programs throughout the day.

SOCIETY and CLUBLAND

By KATE SCHENCK

PHONES—OFFICE 42. HOME 683

Club Work as "True Religion."

Surely the women's clubs are a valuable auxiliary of the church when it sends women helpers into the homes where sick babies or ailing mothers need intelligent nursing. It served the noblest purpose of Christianity when women to whom every door of life was closed have had their lives made full of hope and courage. There is nothing sanctimonious about the efforts which have succeeded in comforting in spirit to whom the message of cheer and helpfulness has been carried "in the highest missionary spirit."

One very important field of women's club work has been opened in the betterment of rural life. This great sociological design has been making wonderful progress in the past few years. Women's clubs do their share in bringing together people who live in country districts. Thanks to improved roads, the rural telephone, the gradual recognition that the school house can be turned into a neighborhood center, and the rapidity of communication due to the growing use of automobiles by farmers, the country in winter is losing its former loneliness.

A social change that could not have been imagined a quarter of a century ago has transformed the conditions of life in rural districts. It is no wonder, therefore, that the women's clubs away from the cities continue to prosper and multiply. And the best informed observers are of the opinion that the movement which has produced so many federated women's clubs is but in its infancy."—From an address by Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker at the biennial convention of women's clubs.

King Split-Log Drag Invented 19 Years Ago, Known Everywhere Now

The inventor of the "King Road Drag," which is used in every country on which the sun shines, lives not very far from Maryville and in view of southwest Nodaway county. His name is D. Ward King of Maitland, Holt county, Missouri.

In 1896 Mr. King invented his split-log road drag. He had been bothered by muddy country roads. In 1879 King moved to Holt county from Springfield, O., his native town, and bought a farm in the northwestern region of Missouri, twenty miles from the railroad.

When the railroad came up the valley and the farms were fenced the roads began to get bad, and then worse They were a series of hog holes.

The first King road drag was made of an old post and a square wooden pump stack—the kind used in old fashioned chain or piston pumps.

"I had to get a patent on my road drag to scare off a fellow over in Indiana who was going to patent it and make farmers buy it," said Mr. King. "Anybody can make one. I never have made 'em to sell. I furnish the plans for making one to anybody that wants one."

The King road drag is a parallelogram. It is like a capital H with the top and bottom closed, and with the left hand upper corner extended above the line, and the lower right hand corner extended below the line. To the right hand side of the H, at the middle crossing or rung, and also at the lower end of the extended right side of the H, are attached the hitching devices.

The front part of the drag is faced with iron. Standing on this end of the drag a farmer can drive over his road about at the speed he would go with a loaded farm wagon, and a trip up the road on one side and down on the other, after each rain, crowns the road, and puts it in fast shape.

The farmers of northwest Missouri took hold of the drag. The last day of May this year on "Road Drag Day," an annual affair at Maitland, there were 168 road drags in a line, all owned and operated by the Holt county farmers on the roads in and around Maitland.

For twenty years King has dragged a half mile of road from his front gate to his neighbor's front gate, toward town. Gradually, after four or five years, the other farmers along the road came in on the dragging of the road, and now the road is a speedway, in first class condition, all year round except in the dead of winter when the snow banks get high.

In 1901-1902 the State Board of Agriculture retained King to lecture throughout the state on his road drag. Now the calls on King's time have made him stop farming himself, and he operates his farm by "hired hands" exclusively so that he can spend his days traveling about telling about dragging the road.

The King road drag is used in every state in the Union, and in every foreign land.

FREE TEXT BOOKS FOR TWO

Fifht and Sixth Class Pupils to Have Books Supplied Next Term—Now Here.

The A fifth, B fifth, A sixth and the B sixth grade classes of the Central school building here are to be supplied with free text books next term, as well as the grades lower than the fifth. Next year the seventh and eighth grade classes also will be supplied.

The new supply of text books have already been ordered and received here by Superintendent W. M. Westbrook and will be distributed on the opening day of school, September 6. Superintendent Westbrook said he had ordered a full set of text books for 140 pupils, about half being fifth grade pupils and half sixth grade pupils.

No more free texts for the lower grades will be ordered this year, Mr. Westbrook said, unless there are not enough of the last year's supply to go around. He said he expected a slight increase in school attendance this next term, however.

State Buys the Free Texts.

The money to pay for the free text books will be received next January out of the state educational fund. Last year it amounted to $410 for Maryville and will probably be about the same this year.

Most of the texts for the fifth and sixth grades will be different this year than those pupils have been using, Mr. Westbrook said, the change having been ordered last year, but not to take effect until this next term.

The new books are: Riverside readers for the B fifth and B sixth grades and the Elson readers for the A fifth and the A sixth; Webster-Cooley language book; Bailey-Manley Speller; Burell arithmetic; Carr-McMurray geography; Economy writing system, as is to be used throughout the country; the Gulick health series, and the Practical drawing system now in use.

DOG SAVES THIRTY-EIGHT.

German Captain Spares Boats For Englishman's Bravery.

London.—How the rescue of a dog touched the heart of a German submarine commander has been revealed by the National Canine Defense league. The league has decided to award Captain Robinson a silver medal for brave conduct in saving his wife's dog.

Robinson was in charge of a British vessel, which, ignoring the signal to take to the boats, was shelled and chased by a German submarine. The steering gear was destroyed and the ship compelled to stop. The captain gave Betty, a Pomeranian, to the second officer to put into a boat, but in passing the dog down one of the crew dropped her into the water.

When Robinson entered the boat Betty could be seen swimming toward the submarine. Without hesitation the captain jumped into the water and swam about a quarter mile, caught the dog and put her on his shoulder. As the submarine had drawn up to him, the captain laid hold of her in order to recover his breath. The German commander said, in imperfect English, "I made up my mind to blow up your boats because you did not stop your ship, but will not for your saving the little dog."

Consequently, thirty-eight lives were saved through the rescue of the dog.

TREND OF OCEAN CURRENTS.

Japanese Government Has Thrown 2,000 Bottles Overboard.

Seattle, Wash.—In an effort to determine the flow of currents in the Pacific ocean the Japanese government has thrown 2,000 bottles overboard in a large area south and east of Japan. The first was dropped on May 30 and the last on June 30.

Each bottle contained a request in eleven languages that it be returned to the Imperial Fisheries institute at Tokyo with exact information as to the time and place it is picked up.

According to local mariners, many of these bottles will get into Puget sound and some into the gulf of Lower California. In recent years large quantities of wood, both trees and lumber, from Japan, Siberia and the Philippines have been picked up on Puget sound shores. It is believed by many seafaring men that the current from off the Japan and China coast returns to the orient after a great circuit through the Pacific as far south as the Hawaiian group.

A substantial reward is offered to the finder of each bottle.

Asbestos has been spun into thread so fine that it requires 32,000 feet to weigh a pound.

COLVES DISEASE MYSTERY.

British Officer Finds Cause of 4,000 Year Scourge.

London.—Lieutenant Colonel Leiper of the London School of Tropical Medicine has just returned from Egypt, where he had been investigating bilharziosis, and has communicated an important discovery respecting this disease to the Royal Society of Medicine.

The disease, which has been a scourge to the Nile delta for thousands of years, has been discovered to have been the cause of death in mummies dating back to 2000 B. C.

In his report Colonel Leiper cited a village where 90 per cent of the children are infected. It has long been known that the disease was transmitted by water, but the life and history of the parasite have remained unestablished.

It has been discovered that the disease is started in a worm which lives in the human body. The eggs of this worm pass from the body into canals and pools, where they enter molluss and there undergo certain evolutions. They emerge from the molluss in a form enabling them to enter the human body through the skin. In this way the disease is commonly contracted while bathing and washing.

Colonel Leiper contends that the disease can be exterminated by filling the pools during the dry season.

Two-year-old Boy Got Bethlehem Shares Raffled by Orphan Asylum.

Ambridge, Pa.—During the orphans' picnic of Allegheny county, held at Kennywood, a ticket costing 10 cents and calling for a chance on ten shares of Bethlehem Steel company stock was bought in the name of Thomas McCroy, two years old, by his father, James McCroy, proprietor of the Hotel Grant here. The officials of the picnic received the stock from James Mulvihill, the Pittsburgh brewer.

A few days ago the stock certificate was sold in this city to a banker for $3,100 at the rate of $310 a share, the top notch price reached by the Bethlehem shares in their recent rapid rise. The money was placed on interest in the boy's name.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN NOW A REFORMER

Ex-Champion Pugilist Exhorts Crowd to Quit Drink.

Asbury Park, N. J.—John L. Sullivan made his bow as a public lecturer on temperance the other day. With an old reputation as a great consumer of liquor, the stalwart ex-pugilist attracted a large audience among whom were many gayly attired women.

With few gestures, but with a good deal of force, Sullivan said:

"Ladies and gentlemen and my friends, now you know I could never be but one person, and that is John L. Sullivan as he is at all times.

"I want to speak particularly to the young man. He will say: 'I knew men that drink every day. They are wonderfully prosperous and healthy.' I say to the young man if you want to be prosperous and healthy do not drink at all. Take the young ball players. They are a stamp of men who do not drink any liquor. I was a money making machine, and my success depended upon my spirit and ability to hang fast.

"In all my career in the prize ring I never was knocked down. It was said Charley Mitchell knocked me down. That is not true. I slipped and was up and at it again in a second. I had managers and trainers because of my superior skill. Naturally it was for their benefit to keep me in the best physical shape so that I could fulfill my best effort, because if John L. played out their meal ticket was gone. But they were generally unsuccessful when they tried to stop me. They were afraid of me.

"But booze wasn't afraid of John L. Sullivan. It was a long time before I began to realize there could be but one finish. So I took a tumble to myself.

"Now, I want to tell you something from the book of experience of John L. Sullivan. The booze has more ways of hitting you than you have of dodging, no matter how successful an individual you may be."
